

"I was tired of my own company and I really value the socialization at Resthave. You can be by yourself when you want but there is also plenty to do. The staff are great and are there right away when you need something. I hated doing the dishes for one person and its great that you can eat and walk away!"

~ Hazel Daehler

